

Cheryl A. James Bio

Cheryl A. James is a humanitarian, public speaker and provides management in various capacities. She has provided personal assistance and management to artists and performers for over forty years. Cheryl has provided personal assistance to Janet Leigh-Brandt, Tony Curtis, Sammy Davis, Jr., Lucille Ball and George C. Scott on various projects in her early career. She worked for Thang, Inc., and provided road and entertainment management to recording and touring artists George Clinton, Parliament-Funkadelic, Parlet and The Brides of Funkenstein. Cheryl has worked for SEMTA where she was a Company Officer for the Board of Directors. Cheryl was the Director of Public Relations for Rubison Odyssey House where she communicated with various media around issues of substance abuse and incarceration. She managed C.B. Charles Fine Arts Gallery in Pompano Beach, FL. Cheryl has worked for over 20 years with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Michigan Department of Corrections, Department of Corrections Electronic Monitoring Program where she supervised up to eighteen people. Currently, Cheryl is the Production Manager for The Secret Society Of Twisted Storytellers where she manages all aspect of its live productions.