

Jacob Walker joined DTE Energy in 2009 as a participant in their Advanced Degree Development program. He currently serves as a Manager for the Center of Excellence. Jacob has served his community in several ways, including the BING Institute as a member of new government initiative, Real Life 101 a mentoring program focused on inner city black males, and STEP, an internal program to DTE Energy focused on employment opportunities for underexposed youth. Currently, he serves as a mentor with the BING Youth Institute, a mentor program for young black males.