

Veda Sherman became part of The Great Migration when she left Kansas in 1968, moving to Detroit to teach in an environment filled with pain and ashes of the 1967 riot. She felt she'd manage well being a graduate of Central Missouri State College and being raised in a loving family. She used art to teach every subject. Retired in 2002 with warm memories of career and family she created. Veda is secretary of the Board and resides in Detroit, Michigan.
